

Sue Carolyn Finnerty

May 31, 1931 - July 22, 2017

Sue Carolyn Finnerty (nee Ross), age 86 of Hobart, IN passed away July 22, 2017 peacefully with family by her side. She was the daughter of Corrine and John Ross who preceded her in death. Sue attended Emerson High School. She worked for Gary Methodist Hospital Rehabilitation Center. She also worked for Lake County Cardiovascular Surgeons for most of her career. After her retirement, she enjoyed traveling, playing cards, boating, visiting her daughters in Florida, frequenting casinos and spending time with Stormy, her beloved Yorkie. Sue is survived by her three children: Leo (Sherry) Finnerty, Jr. of Hobart, Kathleen Finnerty of Coconut Creek, FL and Allison O'Connor of New Smyrna Beach, FL; three grandchildren: David (Chris) Finnerty of Boone Grove, IN, Patricia (Steve) Ewing of Fishers, IN and Joshua (Renee) Miracle of Westfield, IN. She was blessed with two great grandsons, Noah and Henry Ewing and Baby Miracle on the way; loving nieces and nephews. Sue was preceded in death by her husband of 62 years, Leo Finnerty, Sr.; sister and brother-in-law, Betty and Phillip Locasto; dearest son-in-law Brian O'Connor and stepfather, Edward Thomas Curran.

“ I would like to publicly thank LEO and SHERRY FINNERTY for taking care of mom for 4 years after taking care of Dad before that. Being that I live so far away, it meant the world to me. You both have good Karma and 2 extra Guardian Angels. Thanks for taking her on her KY trip and gambling Sherry. Mom loved watching the Cubs games and going out for fish with you LEO. You were her eyes while balancing her checkbook for her. You both were at her beckoned call and took her everywhere while having jobs and lives and families of your own. For all of this and more...THANK YOU LEO AND SHERRY!!❤️❤️😊😊. ALLIE visited Mom quite often and had her stay with her in FL a lot. She took her to Atlantis and took great care of her. For all you did, ALLIE, I THANK YOU TOO! You are an amazing younger sister as you have taught me so much. I AM BLESSED with the most extraordinary siblings and Sister-in-Law in the world. Let's stick together so we can get through this. I love all of you. KATHY FINNERTY❤️🌈

“ I worked with Sue at Lake County Cardiovascular. We had so many laughs and working with Sue made the work day go by so fast. I have always kept in touch with Sue and whenever we talked we laughed about everything. Her sense of humor was remarkable. Just talked to Sue around her Birthday, and she was so upbeat. I always admired that about her. Your mother was a very special lady and I miss her already.

My sincerest sympathy to Leo, Kathy and Allison.
