“ Suzy was a dear friend of my sister Michelle. I was fortunate to get know Suzy and was thankful for the love and care she offered my sister before she died. Suzy was a steadfast friend to me as well and I too treasured her giving nature. Despite her illness she met life head on and displayed a bravery that was phenomenal. She was an inspiration as she sought to comfort others. She once shared with me that she would hug my sister when she saw her. Truly a spirit to be reckoned with in life and I am sure she continues in heaven. Bless you dear sweet Suzy.

“ Susie came into my life as a brand new real estate agent. She was brought to my office by a mutual friend and she has been in my life ever since then. Our best times always had to do with being in Lake Tahoe, boating, swimming, lying on the beach. She was an excellent realtor and was so loved by her clients and friends. She traveled a great deal and made friends wherever she went. I will miss her very much and she would want you all to know that a week before she passed away she beat me at Rumikubes, as sick as she was she was always striving to be the best.

“ Suzy was so very courageous, and she always found great strength through her faith in the Lord. What an example! I will miss her. Hard to believe she left this earth so early.

“ Suzie was a friend to my sister who passed in 2019. Without knowing me, she wrapped her love around me not just once, not just twice, but many times spending countless hours comforting me in my grief.

Sending you all comfort and love during this difficult time. It hurts, I know. ❤️

“ Susan's passing hit me particularly hard. Suzy was the definition of what a friend should be, caring, thoughtful and always there. I was lucky enough to spend time with her towards the end. She was strong and even in her final days she tried to comfort me and make me feel better, that was Susan.

I will miss her and will always say a prayer for her. She is in Gods arms now, pain free and at peace.
