“ I will miss Susan. I remember the first time I met her, we had some things in common, similar jobs and my brother. Over the years, I have enjoyed getting to know her and celebrating with her the birth of each child. I loved her. Her memory will live on in our hearts. Praying for Brent, Michael, Caity, Megan, Barbara, and the rest of the family.##imported-begin##Lynn Crossman##imported-end##

“ I met my dear friend Susan when she, Brent, Michael and Katy moved in next door to me. We became friends right away. We found we were both born in the same year and then we became pregnant together... my first, her last. A beautiful sharing connection, our bond only grew stronger. She was a wonderful friend and mother. The one thing I know best about Susan is that she just wanted to be loved by all <3##imported-begin##Nichole Charlene##imported-end##

“ You will be missed, more than anyone will ever know. My only solas is this:

You will be with the Angels you loved and believe in so very much. Your pain will be no more, and your Heart will be filled with joy and much happiness. The ones who have been waiting for you, are all there to hold you, and keep you safe.

Give my Mother and bother\ \ \ \ \ \ \ \ \ \ 's a Big Hug, for me.

Love You.
