

Susan Crawford Pillar

November 27, 1951 - June 13, 2025

Susan Crawford Pillar of Lowell, IN, passed away peacefully on June 13, 2025, with her family at her bedside. Susan loved her entire family with her whole heart but her grandchildren, her daughters and Ugly were her favorite people.

She's survived by her children, Jacquelyn (AJ), Jesica (Dave) and Jenifer (Chris); her grandchildren, Grace, Everly, Addison and Noah; her brothers, John (Mary), Mike (Judy), Joe (Kat); her sisters- in-law, Chris and Maggi; too many nieces, nephews and grand nieces and nephews to count; a host of close friends and her puppy, Foxy.

Her family is comforted by the fact that she joins the love of her life, John Ericson (Yanni); her parents, Walter and Genevieve; her brothers, Bob and Dave; her nephews, Rob and Jason; and her favorite dog, Gus Gus.

Susan graduated from Andean High School in 1969 and spent most of her years after high school taking care of her family.

She (along with Dumber) made a mean bowl of popcorn on the stove and wore a ton of jewelry (so MANY RINGS). Susan loved to surprise her kids with freshly baked cookies when it snowed and threw epic birthday parties for her children that are fondly remembered by everyone as core memories. She could drink more Coke and eat more sugar than one would assume a human could ingest. Her ridiculous manicures, the smell of Youth Dew and "I don't feel like it" will always remind her family of her. Susan will be forever remembered and missed by her family.

A memorial visitation will be held on Tuesday, June 17, 2025, from 10 a.m. to 11 a.m. at Burns Funeral Home & Crematory, 10101 Broadway, Crown Point, IN, then processing to St. Mary Catholic Church, 321 E.
