Tribute Wall

“ My husband and I would like to convey our sincere condolences in the loss of your loved one. We personally have found comfort, at a similar time, in what the Bible says @ John 5:28,29 and Revelation 21:3,4. Here we read that soon, God is going to bring about a resurreition of our loved ones and do away with all causes we have for suffering,including sickness and death. Knowing this has brought us comfort and is our sincere hope that you and all those who knew and loved Sylvia, will be comforted as well. Take care of yourselves and each other.##imported-begin##PJ##imported-end##
