“ This loss is a tough one. Terry was such a dynamic person which an incredible personality. He always thought of others and made you feel special and important. We became friends at Kappa Sigma but were lifelong friends thereafter. I loved his stories, his jokes and his devilish nature, but most of all his friendship. He had a profound impact on my life and many of the brothers. I'm thankful that I got to see him last August and was looking forward to seeing him in Sullivan next month.

I guess that visit will have to wait until I see him on the "other" side. Thank you Jesus for the time we had.##imported-begin##Mike "Cricket" Krecek##imported-end##

“ What heartbreak our neighborhood is suffering with the Pope family. It was such joy to share the return of Derek with the Patriot Guard that Terry\'s passing is even more heartbreaking. Terry was a wonderful husband, father, Brickie, Brickie supporter, and neighbor. He always thought of others [after his mom\'s funeral, since the family was going out of town, he shared flowers with us just to brighten our day. When the horrible August storm came through, he was one of the first people to come open our garage door and make sure we were OK.] Terry and Reggie taught such love to their children as well. Now we need to return the love to all of you. Thank you so much for sharing him with so many.

“ In loving memory of Terry Lee Pope -
Terry was the greatest friend and brother and I will miss him terribly. I am so thankful I got to spend some quality time and great fun with him and some of the other brothers last August at Bob's "summer home" and I will now cherish that weekend forever. Terry was an "older brother" in Kappa Beta - Kappa Sigma at ISU and I always looked up to him as a great role model. As I became an older brother too I counted on him as a great friend. He actually coined several of my many nicknames including "Ichabod" and "Question Mark". After college, though we lived far apart I always loved to hear from him, get an e-mail from him, or see him at the infrequent get-togethers we still managed to have. I will miss him greatly. My thoughts and prayers are with Reggie, TJ, Erin, and Derick. Also, they are with Bob.##imported-begin##Keith L. Krinn##imported-end##
