“ Thom was the first attorney I ever worked for. It was Buoscio, Pera, Kramer, Novak and Baechle at the time. He was a very peculiar man. It was a rough five years, but I learned so much from him. In fact, I worked for him several years later temporarily until he replaced his secretary. As tough as it was at times, I really enjoyed working with him. His stubbornness paved my way to a successful future and for that, I will be forever grateful. RIP Thom, not Tom.

“ Andrea, my dear, dear friend. Who knew the years would pass so quickly, with some joys and much sadness...life goes on. It drags us, kicking and sometimes screaming, but here we are...older, wiser?...for my part, more tearful. Please call me when you get a quiet moment. Maryjo
