“ Tommy was like a big brother to me. All right, I was already blessed w/ 3 great big brothers, but he was like that favorite uncle that passed along "special knowledge." One example: the "Western Roll" high-jump (since 80s it's been all Fosbury Flop). I was amazed at his explosive right-leg kick! Even being 4 inches taller, I only equaled his "usual" three or four times. But the BEST was life-skills...important cultural education, such as essential Motown artists. His laugh reflected his life-attitude: joy & wonder. I'll never forget.

“ So sorry for the Burns family. Everyone will miss Tom. He had a great sense of humor.
Unfortunately I will not be able to attend services or pay my respect to the Burn family. I will be out of town (Indianapolis) for a family gathering that has been planned for some time. Our family will remember him in prayers. Barbara Chester
