“ I have many memories of Uncle Tom, ones I will always cherish. He and my Aunt Margaret would play cards at my parents house when I was younger and we took vacation down south together. These past few years they opened there home to myself, fiance and my children at Christmas. Loved talking to him about our beloved Notre Dame football team. Will always think of him when I'm watching the games. I know he will be rooting for them from heaven. Thank you for all the memories Uncle Tom. My thoughts and prayers to his wife Margaret and his kids. Love you all.
