

Thomas N. Pavletic

March 12, 1941 - November 22, 2009

Thomas N. Pavletic, age 68 of Lake Worth, FL and formerly of Gary passed away November 22, 2009. He attended grade school at Franklin Elementary and St. Joseph the Worker. Tom graduated from Lew Wallace High School, Class of 1959. He was a member of the Croation Fraternal Union. He was a veteran of the US Army 113th Engineer Battalion. Tom was a self-employed master carpet and tile installer. He was a member of the Moose Lodge in Lake Worth and was an avid golfer, die-hard Cubs and Green Bay Packers fan. He loved to watch Nascar and enjoyed golfing with friends. Tom was preceded in death by his parents Randolph and Ann Pavletic and brother Bob "Whitey" Paveletic. He is survived by sister Ann (Dave) Sartoris of Pontiac, IL; brother - Rudy Pavletic of Hobart; numerous nieces and nephews, and an extended family of friends in the Lake Worth area, especially Vern Quiggley. A Memorial Service will be Saturday, December 5, 2009 at 6 p.m. at Burns Funeral Home, 701 E. 7th St., Hobart, IN. Rev. Stephen Loncar officiating. Visitation will be from 4 p.m. until time of service.