“ Dear Carolinda and Colette, You already know how sad I am over all that has happened. I remember at Uncle Regis' 80th birthday party at the Supervisor's club when we took the picture just like we did with Grandma McMahan, Georgie saying to Tommy "You're not sitting on my lap this time". Now they're both gone. I'm really sorry that I couldn't it make it to his service. You guys did a great job under a lot of pressure. I couldn't get poor Tommy out of my mind yesterday and he got his Rosary. I'm sure that God will be very kind to him. He was really an example to us all of perseverance and accepting our crosses. Love you all, Cousin Tuck.
