“ I grew up with Tom on 123rd Parnell. We played ball, rode and worked on our bicycles and when we reached our teens, cruised the Ave. and went to the beach often. When everyone started to move we lost contact. Sorry for your loss and I regret we never had a chance to connect again.

“ What a wonderful loving man. To his wife (his sweet forever to loving and spoiling his blessed girls). Sooo much energy, couldn't keep up sometimes. 😊 May God watch over the family and guide them on this path they now need to walk through. They will always have someone holding hand and hand. Love to all.
