“ My dear sweet brother Tim, I will miss you forever. I had my own personal handyman and would come whenever I called including fixing my toilet just weeks before his open heart surgery. That's the kind of guy he was. Never wanted you to worry about him but was always there to take care of me. Again, I will miss you till forever ends for me. Xoxox

“ I'm so sorry to hear of the passing of Tim Marsh he was such a kind, and friendly person. I knew he for 14 years at Advocate Trinity Hospital. he was always a happy individual regardless of what was going on with him. Anytime I called for maintenance Tim came and got the job done. He will truly be missed. My condolences to his family.
