“ That will stay

*Your hug and kiss on the cheek
A cup of coffee with dessert
The smiles you know how to seek
Everything built with bare hands until they hurt
That will stay*

*Your “Hello Dolly” song
Sitting on your knee
The calmness when the cubs are on
Their logo on your tee
That will stay*

*Clearing your throat in a quiet room
A newspaper crinkle as you read
Your whistle of your favorite tune
Every “oh joy” you have ever said
That will stay*

*You rocking in your chair
Your jokes that never quit
Back scratchers here and one there
Your peacefulness as you sit
That will stay*

*Your smile that opens up the sky
The warmth of your soul
Wisdom of only which you could supply
A family in which you made whole
That will stay*

*Our family you built strong
Your lessons that stand us tall
The love you gave all along
The stories written within the walls*

That will stay

*Our protector, our hero forever
Your boots remain on this ground
Your fight for us to be together
The few, the proud
That will stay*

*Everything you did here
Every home run you made
Your biggest fans always near
Our cheers that never fade
That will stay*
