Tribute Wall

“ I worked with Vicky and her son at Wilco Foods in Lowell during the late 1970's. She was one of the nicest ladies I've had the pleasure to be associated with during my career. Knowing she was of Greek heritage, I expressed my interest to her in a few traditional dishes. She then carefully hand typed two recipes, one for Spanokopeta and one for Saganaki. They are on her special stationary and are very detailed. I still have them. She was a special person and I'm sure she will be missed.##imported-begin##Mark Pofelski##imported-end##

“ My Dear Theo Nick and Cousins Pete, Dan, Michael and Tony,

My heart is heavy with sadness at the loss of my precious Thea Vicky. No more loving person ever walked this earth, except our Saviour. I will always cherish in my heart every word she ever said to me, every hug she ever gave me and the love she had for me. I know she touched the lives of many people and is now in heaven with the Lord.

I will keep you in my thoughts and prayers. I love you all very much!##imported-begin##Lisa Malamatos Benitez##imported-end##
