“ My next door but one locker friend and locker bully protector.. my friend whom we shared many laughs with from hanging out at Connie's to later years after high school. We shared so many fun, happy, and sad times along with life struggles and challenges .. thank you for the life phone calls to keep our minds steady and then you found an amazing woman to share your lifelong journey with and I knew she would be steady and true to you. Andrea, thank you from the bottom of my heart for being by his side always, thank you letting me spend some time with Vince visiting with you both and your family. He made everyone feel special and loved. He will he missed by many. May perpetual light shine upon him. Rest easy Vince and god bless your family.
