“ My condolences to the Woyna family, although I've never had the privilege of meeting Walter, I have spent days at a time with his son Al. And he's often spoke of his father and the times they spent on the water fishing and boating on Lake Michigan. God Bless you Walter and my you Rest In Peace. And by the way, you raised a great son in Al...

“ Grandpa Woyna, we had a great time fishing at Lake Michigan. Being out there steering the boat was such a great time. You had your hands full keeping an eye on us, your grandchildren, and catching those fish. Seeing you and Grandma, with the whole family on weekends will always be some of the best memories growing up. You are loved dearly by your family and I will miss you very much. I love you Grandpa Woyna.
