“ I don't care how much time has passed, the pain of losing you is ever-present. I love you with all I am. You taught me to be a good Mom and a good person. You were a wonderful Mamaw to all the grandkids and great-grandkids. They, like all of us, miss you so very much. You will never be forgotten. I still think of you every single day. Watch over us, you know we need it!

“ From cooking to camping to watching horror movies 24 hours a day, Mom lived a life of love. No one loved family more than Mom. Her grandkids and great-grandkids meant the world to her. Even when she was sick, she only worried about the kids, not herself. Cooking for you made her day, and she could definitely cook. The gaping hole left behind by her loss will never be filled; but we will make sure all these babies keep her memory alive. I miss you so much, Mom.
