

William E. "Curly" Hopper

August 1, 1938 - January 28, 2014

William E. "Curly" Hopper, age 75 of Lowell, passed away peacefully at his home January 28, 2014. Bill was an avid golfer and loved all sports; but above all, he loved spending time with his children and grandchildren. He was a welder for many years. He will be greatly missed by all who knew him.

Bill is survived by his loving wife of 39 years- Dorri; 2 daughters- Bonny Roggenbauer and Rachel (Jesse) Bryant; 5 grandchildren- Justin and Shawn Bryant and Maddelyn, Abigail, and Nicole Roggenbauer; 7 sisters and 3 brothers, numerous nieces and nephews.

Friends may visit with Bill's family on Monday, February 3, 2014, from 3 to 5p.m. at Burns Funeral Home, 10101 Broadway, Crown Point, IN. A memorial service will follow immediately at 5 p.m. www.burnsfuneral.com

“ I remember watching The Andy Griffith Show during dinner and The Rifleman on Saturdays, and going roller skating or to Pa Pa's Pizza. I remember when you would go bowling on Wednesday night and mom would make eggs for dinner and when you would get home even though it was late and we were already in bed you would always come and kiss me and Bonny goodnight. I remember that you were always there when I needed you.

“ Now a days we don't really see our family a lot at all. It's usually in between some years. Or even when something as heart breaking and dreadful as those passing on. I haven't seen my uncle Curly in very long time. I usually only have faint memories of most family members. I was either to young to remember them or just didn't quite see them as often as others. I don't like that one bit. We need to get everyone together very soon. I don't care how, it just needs to happen. Don't you guys think so? I miss alotta my family and not a day goes by I don't think about them. (especially lately)

*Those we love don't go away, they walk beside us every day.
Unseen, unheard, but always near; still loved, still missed and very dear.*

-R.I.P Uncle Curly gone but never forgotten

“ Dori, Boo, and Rachy, you are so blessed for having a lifetime with Curly as your husband and dad. The pain and tears will eventually stop, but he will always be in our hearts. And then one day, we will be reunited, because our Jesus lives. Praying for Gods peace that passeth all understanding. Love you all!

Dennis - January 29, 2014 at 07:19 PM

Thank you, Uncle Denny.
