“ My prayers and condolences to the family and friends of Mr. Bill Sellers. I worked with him at SouthStar Services and it was a loss when he left SouthStar, but it is a greater loss to hear now of his passing. Rest in peace...May God be with you.##imported-begin##Pat Braden, SouthStar Services##imported-end##

“ I worked with Bill several years thru SouthSTAR Services and it was truly a pleasure. It was he who recruited me to join the Board of Directors there. I always enjoyed working with Bill; he was very dedicated to his profession and people with disabilities. My thoughts and prayers are with his family throughout this difficult time.##imported-begin##Mary##imported-end##

“ During his tenure in the Calumet City Lions Club, Bill “cared” and “shared” his time and talents to help those less fortunate, all the while displaying a wonderful sense of humor that seemed to make even the toughest tasks easier to bear. A truly all-around great guy. I was fortunate, indeed, to have known him. My deepest sympathies to Alison and family.##imported-begin##Dennis Halloran##imported-end##
