“ Comrade, how much I miss you and think of you every time I drive the River Road So glad you you came back into our lives. I have missed you so ever since you left Muncie and had wished it had worked out here for you. But I am heartened that you were feeling "Like your old self again" and had found relief and a measure of of joy in your life to pursue your great love of literature. You were never without a book, I will always love you.
