“ Bill, we met at your mom's memorial, and I was honored to have pizza with the family. I called you at the hospital on March 20 to inform of your brother's memorial on March 24 th. I know that you said he was not going to have one; however, GOD is in charge and the plans changed. You are both together now, so he will always watch over you.

May you rest in peace with Jim.

Semper Fidelis,

Michael ellek

P.S. My condolences to Bill's family for your loss.

“ I had the honor of knowing William as his nurse and as a friend. We shared a love for animals and always had lots to talk about. He loved his family and was a very kind, generous man. I have many fond memories of William and will never forget him. I have a card from him with a cat picture that I have kept for many years in my office. Sharon Gaff

“ Dearest brother-in-law. I will miss you dearly every day of my life. At least I had the chance to say good-bye and will always be grateful for that.

Yourself, little brother Jim, Dad, Mom and Uncle Bob all together now and can rest in peace. I know the Lord is with you and is watching over all of you.

All is quiet now.

My thoughts and prayers are with the rest of the family.

Love, Sister-In-Law, Linda S. Wuenn
