“ Dear momma where do I begin but to say I love u for all eternally .You seen me come into this world and I saw you leave this world but mine was feeled with anger and sorrow and heartache when u left . But then our belief in God is that your spirit is in heaven and your body was nothing but a vessel. And u are singing and running and kissing on your loved ones in heaven.It was so hard to let you go but I didn't want to be selfish and make u stay and be in pain anymore so momma I love u and I hope u are free . Love your Best Buddy your daughter Ruth Ann

“ My dear sweet Ma, oh how deeply my heart is just breaking into a million pieces.. I have to admitt one thing I’m jealous because you’re in Heaven having the biggest reunion possible, I can’t wait till I get to come there.. I’m at peace knowing you have no more pain, no more suffering, no more troubles, no more worries & you’re at complete peace now, you get to do things you haven’t been able to do in years.. You were & are so loved I hope you know that. Until I see ya again Ma I will be missing ya.. Love you’re baby girl

“ Words cannot express the heartache I felt with my mother’s passing from this word. Words cannot express how happy I am thinking of my mother in heaven with no pain and no worries to trouble her. The only words that come close is “I love you mother”.

“ Lived next door to Dean for 17 years and she was like a second mom to me as I was always at her house with William and Eddie. She would get on to me and keep me in line just like my own mom would.. We were family back in those days. She will be missed.

Aunt Dean, was unaware of your passing till later, your phone calls stopped and I didn't know how missed they were till they stopped. You and uncle Roy were in my life since I was four. We stayed family because of your sweet efforts to connect to me. We lived so far apart that we did not see each other often enough. Usually sad times. You were so kind and precious.I know God has welcomed you into his eternal home where you can find peace in his arms. Joyce
