

Wilodean W Marler

January 29, 1932 - December 15, 2016

Wilodean (Dean) Wynn Marler, age 84 of Griffith IN, passed with peace and grace to her heavenly home on Thursday, December 15, 2016. Dean was a woman of great faith and cherished her fifty year plus relationship with her Griffith Baptist Church family. She possessed a true servant's heart, always caring and generous to those in need. She was the ultimate homemaker and an amazing cook who loved to feed her family and friends. Her fried chicken, Christmas lasagna and monkey bread will be dearly missed. Known for her ease and frequent conversations, even with total strangers, we know that she will continue to socialize about her grandchildren, politics, and IU basketball with those that have gone before her. Her gift for gab and never knowing a stranger brought out her entrepreneurial spirit and resulted in a career with Welcome Wagon and creating her own company, Hi Neighbor.

She was blessed to be a beloved wife twice in her life. Dean was preceded in death by her husband of 43 years Donald B. Wynn and her husband of 19 years, the late LeRoy (Roy) Marler.

She was a loving mother to Paula (David) Barrick, Daniel (Tricia) Wynn and grandmother to Austin Wynn, Ellen Wynn and Kelsey Barrick; step-children;- Sandy (Dave) Holzwarth , Susie (Steve) Heil , David (Margaret) Marler ; seven step-grandchildren; nine step great grand-children.

Friends and family are invited to visit at Burns Funeral Home, 10101 Broadway, Crown Point, IN, on Tuesday, December 20, 2016 from 9 a.m. until the time of service at noon. Private interment at Calumet Park Cemetery. In
